Call for Readers 2019

We are looking for keen and talented volunteer readers to help us with a project this Autumn. If you enjoy reading (fiction, non-fiction, short stories, poetry), can provide a short report on what you've read and are able to read up to six novels in six weeks, we'd like to hear from you.

What we'll give: -

- advice on what we're looking for
- all books in electronic format
- an opportunity to tell us your reading preferences
- the opportunity to be involved in the community of the Highland Book Prize

What we'll need from you: -

- a commitment to read your allocated novels and write a short report following our scoring criteria
- The ability to read your allocated novels within a six-week period (August 28th – October 8th, 2019) and submit your reader reports on or before October 8th 2019
- a declaration that you will not share or in any way distribute the reading material with which you're provided
- an understanding that the material and any relating correspondence about the prize must be kept confidential

If you are interested, please send an email to highlandbookprize@moniackmhor.org.uk by 5pm on August 15th, 2019 detailing: -

- (1) why you think you'll make an excellent reader for this project
- (2) a list of the last three books you have read and
